REPUBLICA DE CUBA

Columbus failed to find the riches of the Orient on which he had set his heart. Instead, shortly after his second landfall in the New World, on the island of Cuba, he came across a race of Indians contentedly smoking tobacco leaves roughly rolled into a shape they called a “Cohiba” but we would call a cigar.

Bolivar, Royal Coronas Robusto 307

A softly pressed robusto with rounded edges. The draw is a bit firm but still imparts a floral smoke that becomes richer with pistachio notes, earth and black pepper.

STRENGTH:	Medium	RING GAUGE:	55mm
GAUGE:	Thick	LENGTH:	124mm

Bolivar, Belicoso Fino Pyramid 364

The strongest smoke across the brand. The fairly heavy ring gauge provides an abundance of smoke while the tapered head concentrates it before it reaches the palate, resulting in an elementally earthy smoke, heavy in minerals, raw cocoa and coffee bean.

STRENGTH:	Full	RING GAUGE:	52mm
GAUGE:	Thick	LENGTH:	140mm

Cohiba, Laguito No. 3 Panetela 379

The smallest cigar of the Cohiba range. Facilitates a relaxed and pleasant smoke, with classic Cohiba cigars tasting notes such as fine leather, grass and barnyard underlying the flavour profile.

STRENGTH:	Medium Full	RING GAUGE:	26mm
GAUGE:	Thin	LENGTH:	115mm
